

GENERAL TERMS SCHEDULE

This General Terms Schedule (these “General Terms” or this “General Terms Schedule”) is part of the Master Agreement, Order Form or any other agreement or document entered into between Customer and Hyland, which incorporates this General Terms Schedule by reference (the “Incorporating Document”). As used herein, the “Agreement” means the Incorporating Document, inclusive of this General Terms Schedule, as well as any other terms or documents incorporated within the Incorporating Document.

This General Terms Schedule includes terms that will apply to any product license or service Customer purchases from Hyland under another schedule that is made a part of the Agreement. Other Schedules will have more specific terms relevant to the product licensee or service governed by that Schedule. If there is a conflict between the terms of this General Terms Schedule and any other Schedule, the other Schedule shall control with respect to the subject matter of such Schedule. In the event the same topic is addressed in both the General Terms Schedule and any other Schedule but the terms do not conflict, the terms of both the General Terms Schedule and the Schedule shall apply. Capitalized terms used in this General Terms Schedule may be defined within this General Terms Schedule or within other Schedules to which they are applicable. If such capitalized terms are not defined in this or any other Schedule made part of the Agreement, they are not applicable until defined in an amendment to the Agreement.

1. TERM; TERMINATION; SURVIVAL OF PROVISIONS AFTER EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION.

1.1 Term of the Agreement and Product Subscription(s). The Agreement shall have a term commencing on the Effective Date and will continue until all Product Subscriptions have expired or been terminated. The term of a Product Subscription shall be the Initial Term, and such term shall automatically renew for additional periods of one (1) year unless either party gives the other notice of non-renewal at least thirty (30) days before the end of the then-current term. In the event Customer purchases add-on licenses or services to a Product Subscription via an Order Form or purchase order, the term of such add-on licenses or service shall run coterminous with the existing applicable Product Subscription, unless otherwise stated via an Order Form.

1.2 Termination By Either Party.

1.2.1 Either party may terminate the Agreement effective immediately upon written notice to the other party, if the other party has committed a breach of a material provision of the Agreement and has failed to cure the breach within thirty (30) days after the receipt of written notice of the breach given by the non-breaching party; provided, that Hyland shall not be required to give any opportunity to cure any breach in the case of a Prohibited Act or breach of the U.S. Government End User restrictions, all of which are considered for all purposes to be material provisions of the Agreement.

1.2.2 If, in the reasonable opinion of Customer or Hyland, the compliance by either party with the terms of the Agreement will be in violation of any law or regulation implemented or modified after the Effective Date, Customer or Hyland, as the case may be, may terminate the applicable license or services under the Agreement, upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other party.

1.3 Certain Effects or Consequences of Termination; Survival of Certain Provisions.

1.3.1 Generally. Any termination of the Agreement will not discharge or otherwise affect any pre-termination obligations of either party existing under the Agreement at the time of termination, including a party’s obligation to pay any fees and charges accrued or due for any period or event occurring on or prior to the effective date of termination or expiration of the Agreement; and all liabilities which have accrued prior to the date of termination shall survive.

1.3.2 Survival of Certain Obligations. All provisions of the Agreement, which by their nature extend beyond the expiration or termination of the Agreement will survive and remain in effect until all obligations are satisfied. For clarity, this includes all provisions under this General Terms Schedule, other than the Marketing and Publicity provision.

1.3.3. Additional Effects or Consequences of Termination. Upon termination of the Agreement, any license to use the Software or Hyland Cloud Service will automatically terminate without other or further action on the part of any party; and Customer shall immediately: (a) discontinue any and all use of the Software, Documentation, and, if applicable, Hyland Cloud Service; and (b) in the case of Software and Documentation within Customer's control, either: (i) return the Software and Documentation to Hyland, or (ii) with the prior permission of Hyland, destroy the Software and Documentation and certify in writing to Hyland that Customer has completed such destruction.

2. PAYMENT TERMS.

2.1 Invoicing. All invoices shall be sent electronically by Hyland to the other party to the attention of "Accounts Payable," or to such other person or department as the other party may specify from time to time by written notice to Hyland. In the event any invoice contains a billing error which is discovered by Hyland, Hyland may issue a new invoice to correct the error.

2.2 General Payment Terms. So long as Customer is not in default of any payment obligations under the Agreement, except as otherwise provided in the Agreement, Customer shall pay in full all Undisputed Amounts within thirty (30) days after the receipt of such invoice. "Undisputed Amounts" means all amounts on any invoice for which Customer has not provided written notice to Hyland, prior to the invoice due date, setting forth Customer's good faith objections to payment of such invoice amounts. With respect to any annual fees, Hyland may increase or decrease the fees invoiced if the value of the currency used, determined based on the currency's exchange rate to USD as tracked and published by the Wall Street Journal, has fluctuated by ten percent (10%) or more between the beginning of the prior annual period and the applicable invoice date.

2.3 Taxes and Governmental Charges. All payments under the Agreement are exclusive of all applicable taxes and governmental charges (such as duties), all of which shall be paid by Customer (other than taxes on Hyland's income). In the event Customer is required by law to withhold taxes, Customer agrees to furnish Hyland all required receipts and documentation substantiating such payment. If Hyland is required by law to remit any tax or governmental charge on behalf of or for the account of Customer, Customer agrees to reimburse Hyland within thirty (30) days after Hyland notifies Customer in writing of such remittance. Customer agrees to provide Hyland with valid tax exemption certificates in advance of any remittance otherwise required to be made by Hyland on behalf of or for the account of Customer, where such certificates are applicable.

2.4 Resolution of Invoice Disputes. In the case of any Disputed Amount (as defined below), that are timely disputed in accordance with this Section, both parties will use reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) calendar days of Hyland's receipt of the notice. Any amounts not timely disputed in accordance with the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be undisputed and shall be payable in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. If any Disputed Amount remains disputed in good faith after such 30-day period, either party may escalate the disputed items to the parties' respective executive management to attempt to resolve the dispute. The parties agree that at least one of each of their respective executives will meet (which may be by telephone or other similarly effective means of remote communication) within ten (10) calendar days of any such escalation to attempt to resolve the dispute. If the parties' executive managers are unable to resolve the dispute within ten (10) calendar days of such meeting, either party thereafter may file litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction to seek resolution of the dispute. As used herein, "Disputed Amounts" means those amounts on any invoice for which the invoiced party has provided written notice to Hyland, prior to the invoice due date, setting forth the such party's good faith objections to payment of such amounts.

2.5 Certain Remedies For Non-Payment or For Late Payment. At the election of Hyland, exercisable by written notice to Customer, any past due amounts (except properly Disputed Amounts in accordance with the Agreement) under any Hyland invoice shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month (or, if lower, the maximum rate lawfully chargeable) from the date due through the date that such past due amounts and such accrued interest are paid in full. In the event of: (a) any default by Customer in the payment of any Undisputed Amounts, which default continues unremedied for at least thirty (30) calendar days after the due date of such payment; or (b) any failure of the parties to resolve a dispute relating to a Disputed Amount within sixty (60) days (or such other period mutually agreed by the parties in writing) following Hyland's receipt of the written notice timely disputing payment of such amounts, Hyland shall have the right to suspend or cease the provision of any services under the Agreement or any Services Proposal, including, if applicable, the delivery of any Upgrades and Enhancements to Customer, unless and until such default shall have been cured or such dispute has been resolved, as applicable.

2.6 Currency; Delivery of Tangible Keys and CDs. All fees, costs and expenses under the Agreement shall be determined and invoiced in, and all payments required to be made in connection with the Agreement shall be made in the currency identified in the applicable Order Form or purchase order accepted by Hyland. Delivery of tangible keys or CDs, if any, shall be F.O.B. Hyland's (or its affiliate's) offices.

2.7 Training. Hyland offers training courses to Customer and its employees as described on Hyland's training web portal (currently, <https://university.hyland.com>). Training fees for such courses shall be determined at Hyland's retail prices in effect at the time Customer registers for training. Hyland shall invoice Customer for applicable training fees upon Customer's registration for each training course and such invoice shall be due and payable in accordance with the Agreement. In the event that Customer prepaids for training, then such prepaid training shall expire twelve (12) months from the date Hyland accepts Customer's purchase order for such training or the Effective Date of the applicable Order Form for such training, whichever is earlier.

3. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

3.1 "Confidential Information" shall be such information disclosed hereunder that is marked "Proprietary" or "Confidential," that is known by the recipient to be confidential or that is of such a nature as customarily would be confidential between business parties, except as provided in the next sentence. Confidential Information shall not include information that: (a) is or becomes generally known to the public without breach of the Agreement by the recipient, or (b) is demonstrated by the recipient to have been in the recipient's possession prior to its disclosure by the disclosing party, or (c) is received by the recipient from a third party that is not bound by restrictions, obligations or duties of non-disclosure to the disclosing party, or (d) is demonstrated by recipient to have been independently developed by recipient without reference to the other party's information.

3.2 Each party agrees that, with respect to the Confidential Information of the other party, or its affiliates, such party as a recipient shall use the same degree of care to protect the other party's Confidential Information that such party uses to protect its own confidential information, but in any event not less than reasonable care, and not use or disclose to any third party any such Confidential Information, except as may be required by law or court order or as provided under the Agreement. Each party shall be liable and responsible for any breach of this Section 3 committed by any of such party's employees, agents, consultants, contractors or representatives.

7. FORCE MAJEURE. No failure, delay or default in performance of any obligation of a party to the Agreement (except the payment of money) shall constitute a default or breach to the extent that such failure to perform, delay or default arises out of a cause, existing or future, beyond the control (including, but not limited to: action or inaction of governmental, civil or military authority; fire; strike, lockout or other labor dispute; flood; war; riot; theft; earthquake; natural disaster or acts of God; national emergencies; unavailability of materials or utilities; sabotage; viruses; or the act, negligence or default of the other party) and without negligence or willful misconduct of the party otherwise chargeable with failure, delay or default. This Section shall in no way limit the right of either party to make any claim against third parties for any damages suffered due to said causes. If any performance date by a party under the Agreement is 9.12 Injunctive Relief. The parties to the Agreement recognize that a remedy at law for a breach of the provisions of the Agreement relating to Confidential Information and intellectual property rights may not be adequate for the aggrieved party's protection and, accordingly, the aggrieved party shall have the right to seek, in addition to any other relief and remedies available to it, specific performance and/or injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of the Agreement.

6. The Severability Section of the General Terms Schedule shall be replaced in its entirety as follows:

In the event any provision of the Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability will attach only to such provision and will not affect or render invalid or unenforceable any other provision of the Agreement.
